

2022 Submissions for Educators Pick Best of STEM

Hello, many of you have mentioned that you would like to see the application for Educators Pick Best of STEM before you submit your application. This document is an export of the electronic application form. Please submit all applications via the electronic form online.

Q2

Welcome to Submissions for the 2022 Educators Pick Best of STEM award.

New for 2022

Educators asked for them, so we have added new categories for 2022:

- Career & Technical Education
- Expanded categories for Social Impact
- Trailblazer category for emerging technology and solutions

Also, new this year, we are providing educator judges with a $50 per application stipend to thank them for their insights. Our volunteer judges spend time listening, reviewing, and evaluating, and we are so thankful for their expertise. You will see this increase reflected in the total cost below.

Pricing

One award entry: $645

2-4 entries: $575 for each award entry

5+ entries: $545 for each award entry

Pricing includes stipends for educator judges, media coverage, and announcement of winners on the NSTA website as well as NSTA science journals.

How does this work?

1. Fill out this form to enter as many submissions as you'd like
2. We will ask you for company information, the product name, URL, and notes you would like to provide for the judges.

3. For each submission, we will ask who will be conducting the product demonstration and their contact information.
4. You will receive a confirmation of your submission.
5. Invoices will be sent via Quickbooks and are due upon receipt.

Let's get started.
